Dear Chief:

I am sending you, a little late, a small copy of the medallion. It seems to me pretty good, although I think they have put my brother Ezra's nose on, in which I find that almost everybody agrees.

I hope that you all may have a merry Christmas and a happy New Year; would that we had you with us, as in the old days!

Your letter came this morning as to the medical section. I offered a paper some six months ago which I suppose is on the program on "The Study of the Renal Function" or something of that sort, but instead of acceding to your good letter by offering that or another, I am going to ask you to take that off, if you will, for since that time, I have been made chairman of the national committee here, and I am afraid that will give me so much to do that I will not have time to read any set papers, but I shall try to take part in the discussions.

Love to Lady Osler and Revere.

Ever yours,

Sir William Osler, Bart,
13 Norham Gardens,
Oxford, England.

December 23, 1912.
