Dear Nixon:

Mr. Colyer-Fergusson has just been in to show me the Cotswold Games book which he seured for 2 guineas. He has also found a most interesting marriage settlement - a fine big parchment - of Dover's daughter, with T.D.'s signature. He likes your inscription very much. I will write and ask how much it will cost, and of course he will subscribe.

He will come to the meeting on March 5th. Will you dine with me at the Automobile Club that evening to meet him? Do you read your paper that day? He will bring the book and the parchment, and of the latter he will give you a photograph.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler.
