From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.

5th March, 1913.

Dear Hadley,

Thank you so much for your kind letter of the 20th. I am looking forward with great pleasure to my stay at Yale. I think I will not go to the National Academy meeting, but will just continue my lectures.

It is very kind in you and Mrs. Hadley to offer to put me up; but I think I should feel more free at the Club, so that I will accept your kind offer there. From what I hear there will be a good many of my old students turning up for one or other of the lectures, so that the Club would be more convenient.

Sincerely yours,
