

From the Regius Profess or Medicine, Oxford.

17th March, 1913.

Dear Stokes,

Could you arrange to have the epideascope in the lecture room I will use? I could then just bring the photographs and not the heavy lantern slides. I shall have everything ready to leave after my lectures.

I hope the little girl is doing well.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed)

Wm. Osler

Per I. C.

Secretary