From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford

3rd July, 1913.

Dear Hackett:

Yours of the 23rd to hand. I am so glad you are getting on with the illustrations. Let me know if there are any weak ones that I could have reproduced here. Mr. Day said you would pay the cost of the photographs for the work. The bills have just come in from the Oxford Press. It seems to me that, as I used the pictures for my lectures, it would not be quite fair to have you pay the total amount, which is twenty-nine or thirty pounds. Ask Day what he thinks: I am of course willing to do anything he suggests.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler
