

Oxford

26, Sept. 1913

Dear J. William,

I wish I were with you in your trip. We missed you at the Congress, which was really a great affair. We went to Scotland afterwards, where Revere had splendid fishing and had the delight of killing his first salmon. I suppose you are going eastwards so that there is not much chance of seeing you this winter. I am sending this to Philadelphia that my good wishes may catch you both, either in India or Japan.

Love to your wife!

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler
