

CUS 917/116.39

(Reply)

September 29, 1913.

Dear Sir William:

Thanks - yes. You and your dinners and your guests and everything yours always give so much pleasure that I count myself fortunate to be of your party at your dinner to Professor Jastrow at the Athenaeum Club, October 9th.

But as for the lecture the next day - I am a little afraid to promise but I will do my best.

Believe me, Most heartily yours,

W. H. Page.