

From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.
31 Dec. 1913.

Dear Radin: I am greatly pleased with your book-plate and with the motto from my friend Weir Mitchell. I am sorry to say that I have not got a book-plate. I have had many designs, but none entirely satisfactory, but when I have one I shall surely remember you. I enclose a little booklet that may be of interest.

With best wishes for the New Year,
Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler

[Note. The "booklet" was "A Way of Life," address to Yale Students, April 20, 1913. I had sent him my book-plate a wood-engraving by the famous wood-engraver Timothy Cole. I enclose a copy for you. The motto is from Wm Mitchell's poem "Books and the man - William Osler", first-published in the Charaka Club proceedings, as you no doubt know).
