

Oxford,

8 May, 1914.

Dear Miss Charlton:-

I am awfully sorry to hear of your trouble. You will have the satisfaction, at any rate, of having seen the library develop in an extraordinary way under your management.

I shall be only too glad to help you in any way I can to get another position.

Lady Osler joins with me in kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

(signed) Wm. Osler.

Miss Charlton went from McGill to Toronto.
