

21.)

Prof. Wenckebach.

CUS 417/117.97
Oxford, 13, May, 1914.

Many thanks for your monograph on cardiac irregularities, which I was looking over last night with the greatest interest. It is a most useful presentation of the whole subject.-

I hope all goes well with you and yours. I was very sorry not to be able to get to Wiesbaden this Spring, as I had hoped to, but matters came up which made it impossible to get away.-