(From secretary's notebook)

(To Dr. Horatio Symonds)

Dear Symonds:

June 2, 1914.

Your colleagues on the staff of the Radcliffe Infirmary would like you to get to Sargent for a sketch in crayon which he does. He makes a very good job of it. I have recently had one done for the library of the College of Physicians, Philadelphia. He does the sketch in two hours, so that you would not have much trouble. I could show you a photograph of mine if you would come in.

Wm. Osler.
