

July 27, 1914.

Dear Mac,

Had to hear such good news of the St. John meeting from you & from Billy Francis.

I am sure you & Amy had a delightful visit in T.B.I. I am going off to Bryllov today to the BMA & then on to Colonsay for a week. Bruce & Revere sail on Thursday by the Calgarian. I am sailing on Sept 5th by the Aquitania. I shall go direct from New York to Boston.

After Anson's death I had a deputation from the caucus of both parties asking me to stand as an independent member & that there would be no contest, but remembering Michael Foster & still having some sense left, I told them it was not my job. There would have been nothing in it for me but worry.

Things are in a delect of a mess here.

Love to Amy

Dr. McCrae
