Dear Miss Noyes,

Did I write to you asking if you had in the Library a copy of The Life of Boerhaave, London, 1743? Let me know please, and, if you have not, I can send you a copy.

I shall not be able to come out this year, much to my distress, but it is impossible to leave with the uncertainty of this war hanging over us.

I hope all goes well with the Library.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler

Love to Miss Nichols when you see her.
