

(Dr. James J. Putnam)

From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.

4, September, 1914.

Dear J. P.,

Thanks for the reprint of your notice on Weir Mitchell, which will be nicely bound and go on my shelves with an increasing number of his original editions.

I am so sorry that I cannot come over this year. I was to have sailed tomorrow, but, of course, this wretched war blocks everything. The old country is in it for final victory, I am sure; but meanwhile it is a terrible ordeal for us all.

Love to the family,

Ever yours,

Wm Osler.