

(Letter to Edward Milburn, Esq.)
(typewriting)

9, October, 1914.

From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.

Dear Ned,

Sorry to hear you have been laid up . It is not often that you are 'knocked out.'

We are all very hard at work here. Expecting the Canadians this week. I do not know when I shall be out, but certainly not until after the war.

I enclose you a little address which I gave to the soldiers in one of the camps.

Sincerely yours,

WM OSLER
