From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.

27th. October, 1914.

Dear Harry T.,

So glad you liked the bowl--only we were so disgusted to have forgotten to send a cable on the day, as we had intended.

These are strenuous times here, and we are both very full of work. The country is in fine form, and will pull through all right. It is going to be a long business. I wish you could see Revere at Christ Church. He has got very comfortable rooms, and is trying to get a combined military and academic training. He is not much of a soldier; his tastes are all literary and artistic. He is beginning to etch very nicely --quite self-taught!

I enclose Hal a cheque to spend on books or instruments, or anything he fancies. U suppose that little sinner Trudeau is up to his eyes in mischief, as usual.

Love to Zoe and Margaret.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed)

Wm. Osler

P.S. Much interested to read the reports of the Celebration. I wish I could have been there. How your dear old father would have rejoiced to see the development of the hospital! It seems scarcely possible that it is more than twenty-five years ago since my first visit, when I stayed the night with him. There is a good deal of virtue in the Thomas family!

(In Dr. Osler's hand-writing) Greetings to Miss Garrett.
