(To Leonard Mackall)

FROM THE REGIUS PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE, OXFORD.
[10 April, 1915]

Dear Mackall:

Your second, longer letter from Rotterdam arrived this morning.

I thought I had written to thank you for the pamphlet from Müller, but I have been so busy with one thing and another that I do not remember.

What [O.'s] introduction to the translated "History of Medicine" [by Neuburger, Oxford, 1910] do you mean?

I will certainly write to Bixby and ask for the poems and letters, and explain the circumstances. I am sure he will send them.

I will send you a list of some early books I want that you might look out at your leisure.

Sincerely yours,

W<sup>m</sup> Osler
