

(J. Wm. White)

Oxford.

14, April, 1915.

Dear J. William,

I will see Gowers one day this week, and let you know how the translations are proceeding. They may take the revised book as well. I should think they are likely to do so, as your direct style seems to please them very much.

You seem to have wiped the floor with Jastrow.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler.