(To Dr. Maude Abbott)

FROM THE REGIUS PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE, OXFORD.

3rd June, 1915.

Dear Dr. Abbott:

Sorry to hear that your sister is so ill again; but I daresay if there was a matter of urgency and you were needed by Dr. Keith at the Royal College of Surgeons, that you might get away for a few months.

I am afraid that with the Journal you will be doing too much. Everyone is delighted with the first fasciculus of the catalogue, and it was a nice thing to dedicate it to the memory of Wyatt Johnson. I will try to send you something for the Journal to help fill up.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler.
