Dear Mac:-

Delighted to hear that the last of the index proof has gone. What a job it has been! But you have picked up a good deal on the way.

Tell Amy that Campbell is fattening and his wound has healed. I am trying to arrange a commission for him, but it is not an easy matter to get the fellows out of the ranks.

You will be sorry to hear that your friend Benbow returned from Servia with nephritis after typhus. He is a very fine fellow. Jack was here with us this week-end, with a most martial look. Poor fellow! He has had a hard time, I am afraid. I am glad he is joining the McGill unit. Revere has got quite interested in his work, and it will be a splendid training with a man like Law.

I wrote the other day to Appletons saying that you were joining me, and asking for a new contract. If you have any legal friend, or if you can look up any American book on copyright, see how long it runs. I cannot find any book here with the information.

Love to Amy.

Sincerely yours,

W. O.
