

(1915)

Sunday Eve
13, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

Dear J. William

I called up Claridges this eve but found you had not yet got in. Let us see you as soon as possible. I am tied here with examinations all week. I am free part of Wednesday. You might take a few days rest after the steamer, if so your room is ready. I am writing to one or two people to look you up. I hope you have had a good voyage.

Yours ever

W^m Osler