Sir Wm. Osler, Bart.,
Oxford, Eng.

Dear Sir William:

Dr. Weller Van Hook, whom I knew in Chicago, and who is a close friend of Dr. Ludwig Hektoen, writes me that his son, aged nineteen, wishes to enter Christ Church, Oxford. I am told that he is an excellent student and a fine fellow personally.

I think you know of Dr. Van Hook's standing in Chicago. He is one of the best surgeons there and popular in the profession. Any kindness you may show his son I shall deeply appreciate.

Yours faithfully,

Lewellys F. Barker
