

From Dr. Malloch's Journal.
Saturday, Dec. 18, 1915.

Lady O. disturbed with mass of papers etc. in all parts of house. Sir Wm. was paid $2,000 for those lectures at Yale - but could not publish them in time, so sent back cheque. They have been in galley proof for a long time. Now Tom McGrae writes to Lady O. to hustle up the text-book. Sir Wm. talked again so much of his catalogue. Now when awake at night he thinks out introductions for different sections.
