

(Letter to Sir John W. Moore)
Dublin
(typewritten)

OXFORD

March 3, 1916.

Dear Moore, The Carnegie Trust, Dunfermline is to investigate the physical welfare of mothers and children. Could you suggest to A. L. Hetherington, the secretary, the name of some man or woman who could do this work for Ireland - some AI young Public Health Officer or a good woman of the Janet Campbell type?

Sincerely yours,

WM OSLER