

May 24, 1916

List of guests invited to meet the members of the American Medical Mission at a dinner given by Sir William Osler and Sir Alfred Keogh, at the Athenaeum Club, London, May 24, 1916.

CUS 417/21-134

of Pleural Complications

The American Ambassador.

Sir Alfred Keogh, Director General, Army Medical Service.

Surgeon General W. Babbie.

Surgeon General Sir David Bruce.

Surgeon General M.W. Russell, Deputy Director General, Army Medical Service.

Colonel Horrocks, Hon. Surgeon to the King.

Colonel Blenkinsop, Assistant Director General, Army Medical Service.

Surgeon General Sir T.J. Gallway, Deputy Director, Army Medical Service.

Lieut.-Colonel Stanistreet, Deputy Assistant Directors General, Army Medical Service.
Lieut.-Colonel Barrow)

Lieut. Colonel Bruce Porter, R.A.M.C. (Ter.).

Lieut. Colonel Robb-Jones, R.A.M.C., (Ter.).

Mr. R. Walrond, War Office.

Hon. Arthur Stanley, British Red Cross.

Lieut. Colonel Murray McLaron, Can. R.A.M.C.)

Lieut. Colonel Adami " ") headquarters, 86, Strand.

Captain Allen " ")

Lieut. Colonel Cameron (of Toronto), Surgeon, Canadian Hospital, Orpington.

Lieut. Colonel McPherson " C.O., " " "

Lieut. Colonel Correll (of Ottawa), C.O., " " Taplow.

Lieut. Colonel Decarie (of Montreal) " " "

Lieut. Colonel Beauchamp " " " "

Lieut. Colonel Rennie, A.D.M.S., Can. Service, Shorncliffe.

Major Newburn, Surgeon, Canadian Hospital, Taplow.

Dr. Spriggs, Editor, "Lancet".

Dr. Dawson Williams, Editor, "British Medical Journal".

Sir Seymour Sharkey.

Colonel Armour.

Colonel Hodgetts, Canadian Red Cross.

President, Royal College of Physicians, Dr. Taylor, accepted, but had word of the death of his son at the front.

President of the Royal College of Surgeons ill.

Sir Rickman Godlee away.

Sir Arthur May, Director General Navy away.