To Sir John MacAlister.

13, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

Letter Script.

29th. ~~August~~
(Summer 1916)

Dear MacAlister,

Certainly Oct. 29th after his resignation

You are a good friend but a bad diagnostician. I have had a series of very unpleasant worries, chiefly about the Canadian Hospitals but I have sealed up the door and am free. It has been a bit of injustice to Gen. Jones, the Director who has been ^{re}called. America would kill me dead. I am having a peaceful week and the next time you see me I hope you will say the broad arrow has left my forehead.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.
