

13 Norham Gardens,
Oxford,
Jan. 26th, 1917.

Dear Miss Charlton:

No, I have not forgotten you, but I am much driven and no secretary. Delighted to hear of your upward progress. You have much ferment in your composition, and will put that library in good form. I have a few prints for you and will take the first opportunity of sending them. You will also have a beautiful book-worm plate for the library within a few weeks -- have it framed.

Go, like an Angel, to Britnell's, the old book shop, and get for me Bovell's "Natural Theology" (which would do you good to read) and his "Steps to the Altar," (better still) and I think there was another -- yes, "The Advent." All published in Toronto.

My library grows and is now catalogued and shelf marked.

Revere is on the Anore... pounding away with the Field Artillery.

Greetings to the Academy and congratulations to the President, Dr. John Ferguson,

Yours ever,

(signed) Wm. Osler.