

G. Alder
(Prof. George Blumer)

CUS417/123.25

Feb 1st, 1917.

13, Norham Gardens,

Oxford.

Dear Blumer

Sanday is a very dear friend, & colleague at Ch. Ch. I will pass on your message. He is hard hit by the war. I have had very cheery letters from Hurd. I hope - as is so often the case - the condition may not be as bad as it looked at first. Sayle will not get the delicious Field poem - which is already pasted in my copy of the Ages of Man - also the Gillilan one - for both thanks. Send another for Sayle!

All well here & hopeful. It is a slow business, but we shall pull thro. on top.

Yours sincerely

W^m Osler

Notes by Prof. Blumer:

Sanday. Rev. Wm. Sanday, D.D., Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity, Oxford, formerly professor at Durham Univ. in my day.

Sayle. Charles Sayle, author of "The Ages of Man", 1916, a copy of which W.O. had sent me.

G.A.B.