Dear Archie,
 How delightful to see Paris in this way! I am glad you have had the chance. Thanks for sending back the book. It was a bit of an imposition I fear but Colin seems to have had no trouble. Keep your eyes open for anything special and send me a p.c. Sorry Rist is away as he is A.I. My old girl is away and the catalogue drags, but Miss Cumming does the accessions. I told you, I think, of the Ether haul, Morten Jr. send H. J. Bigelows original paper and three copies of the Letheon? his fathers original paper, a dozen other items which I lacked. A few good things come in every day or so, and a few tempting sales on the horizon.

Greetings to Sir John.
 Yours ever,
 W. O.
