

This was a very natural feeling which doubtless has come to many others regarding people they were interested in. There is a very good illustration of the sort of thing W.O. was after, in Thayer's report of some Unpublished Letters of Laennec, J. H. H. Bulletin, Dec., 1920.