

With very kind regards

Believe me

Yours sincerely

Threlton - Dyer

W. T. Threlton - Dyer

(S W)

When there is love & humanity then will be love of the Professor

The role of humanity in the garden of science & the community & man doubt not all the greatly & humanly

20/220
11

WS417/126.35
2. 8. 18

THE FERN
MATCHLESS
GLOUCESTER

My dear Oscar

As I have finished the first draft of my glossary of Greek Plant-names I have returned to Oriel (where the Galen you so very kindly borrowed for me and still more kindly brought to this house. Although the City has two bad lacunae in important parts the loan has been of the greatest possible service to me. As it involved you in considerable responsibility you will be glad to see the Provost's acknowledgment of its safe return.

Galen's personality interested me much. He was a scholar and a gentleman, on an entirely different plane to a mere compiler like Dioscorides.

The glory has hung on hand as I could only look on it at intervals. During the last two years I have been repeatedly laid up with attacks of heart trouble. I have had the pick of our best doctors and they all agree that structurally my heart is absolutely sound. Its disordered action is a kind of ^{and provoked by} neurosis starting from the ^{the} intestines.

The only effective remedy seems to be keeping my bed.

I am glad to say that at present I am fairly free from trouble.