

From Dr. Malloch's Journal.
Monday, Sept. 2, 1918.

He has lately got ed. princ. of Plato (Aldine) 1513, Par., quite cheap, ? L10, also 1st ed. Copernicus 1543. Prof. Ramsay Wright went with us to Cliveden - cases there. Lday O. told me that they hoped to give Revere's books to establish English literary library at J.H.H. They are buying ground rent of this house from St. John's and thus get it a freehold. Ch.Ch. will accept it and W.O. wants to leave it as a residence for the Regius Prof. of Med. who comes after him.  The University will have to endow the Chair.

James Prof. Dants - Lewis on Oxford.

 All went things. Took a small garden room - all previous profs of medicine

Always found one consultation money to give. Kept acct. of income more expenses. Kept a special fund in bond in Oxford to cover death expenses. Strange was all the imprudent expenditure that he should have done such a hard headed thing as this.
