

From Dr. Malloch's Journal
Thursday, September 12, 1918.

Dinner at 7.45 at Athenaeum; I sat next to Harvey Littlejohn (Dean of Edinb. and Prof. of Forensic Med.) 'Pete' there (Sir William Peterson) and Sir Robert Falconer. General Winter (Amer. Med. Corps), Col. Washburn (Head of Mass. Gen. Hosp.), Colonels Finley and Adami, Sprigge (Ed. of 'Lancet'), Sir George Perley, and young Lieut. Williams (Amer. Off. Hospital). Very nice dinner. After dinner saw library upstairs = a wonderful room.
