

CUS417/126.129

Save from 6.xi,18.

13, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

Dear McCulloch:-

The Burton was such a bad copy that Quatch did not bid the book has gone up very much, but I think a copy should be picked up for thirty to thirty-five pounds. I am arranging with Q to bid on those Leighton items. You should have the Apuleius which I see by Klebs is represented in America by an imperfect copy in Mrs. Sears Library. R/in/

Boulanger - Gougy -- Boussus All good men - the first one exclusively medical.

Yours sincerely,

Wm. Osler