From Dr. Malloch's Journal.

Thursday, Nov. 14, 1918.

Left Paddington 1.30. W.O. in dining-room and I let myself in with Bill's key. He looks pretty well. A minute later a young man (a case of "Schwarze Zunge - 2nd inside of a few days) came in. We took him to Radcliffe and examined smear from tongue. Lady O. looks well; we had dinner alone. W.O. out at a dining-club "The Club" (going for about 150 years - 12 members). I believe W.O. has sent off letter about giving Revere's books to J.H.H. University. We live almost altogether in the dining-room.
