TO Sir J. Y. W. M.

Letter Script.

26th. 13, Norham Gds.
Oxford.

Dear MacAlister,

[Dec. 26, 1918]

I am glad you saw Martin. This Colonial [?] pressure will be of the greatest possible service, and will make the Hospitals realize the importance of prompt action. I will come on the 9th. So glad you are to stay on duty, as a teacher.

Greetings for 1919.

Yours, etc.

Wm. Osler
