

CUS417/126.187

Oxford, Dec. 31, 1918.

Dear Farlow

The enclosed was in a bundle of pamphlets- and you may not have it. I hope you (and Brigham) got my letters of a few weeks ago acknowledging the book. Many Boston men have seen it here since then. We are having a steady stream of men sight-seeing before going home. Greetings for 1919.

Yours sincerely,

Wm Osler.

{ He sent a Bill of Mortality of Portsmouth N.H. }
{ which we needed. How did he happen to bear our wants in mind? }
J.W.F.