Oxford.

Dear Garrison:

I hope by this time you are 'over' and comfortably settled somewhere. Let me know how you are and I hope before long you will be sent to England. You must come to us, of course, and let me tap your brains about my catalogue. Let me know if I can do anything for you in London and should you wish me to look up rooms for you just send a wire. I am in town very often.

Greetings to you all at G.H.Q. and best wishes for 1919.
Love to Streeter, when you see him. I am expecting him here when he gets to England.

Yours,

Wm. Osler

I knew Baker well and had a great affection for the dear fellow.
