Dr. Hurd, Baltimore.

re
Brooks. I am delighted to have monograph of Brooks. What a splendid observer he was! Has a bibliography of his writing appeared? and where was the best biographical notice? I should like to have for my library. . .

Lib- Dear President, (J. H. H.)
rary.

I am so glad you are to make the announcements on the 22nd. Please lay stress upon the purpose of the gift, as a stimulus to the students of Eng. literature. All details may be arranged hereafter, as it will be, I suppose, a year at least before the Son's books could be sent out. As I mentioned, that section of my books library which was to go to him, will be sent out with his books.
It will be among the special editions that you will be interested to know are a good many of the originals of Shelley, the 1645
Milton poems, original eds. of the Paradise Lost and Paradise Regained, original Keats, Donnes, Fuller, Gulliver's Travels, and a particularly interesting collection of Walt Whitman's Magazine articles, newspaper clippings sent by Whitman from 1876 up to the time of his death to Edward Dowden.
