

W.C. offered 15 Shillings for it. Since one took it out of the open jar we found it again days later was - found in Core area.

fallen clay (abraded -

Cf. Jostins Celler-Celler about it to two signs Langdon is neg.
for Hoff.

Unterne effe was they as fallens

Germans excavating in Assyria - sending these rare tablets - to ~~to~~ Berlin - was break and - after ~~break~~ Places of German excavation over run in advance - a German latter passes by Akra & the tablet found in his pocket - found in this jarred in <sup>for Assyria</sup> Mozul - sent to Prof Scheil (Scheil) of the Académie des sciences by his son - purchased by W. - <sup>notified</sup> to it by E. Langdon

COS 417 / 127.79
K. J. Temple Library

The Mederic Tableau from Assur (Assur) the old capital of Assyria Mar 8th 1919

Portrait of Sardanapalus who founded the great library at Nineveh. In Assyria we very rare (at Nineveh)