

From Dr. Malloch's Journal.
 Monday, Feb. 17, 1919.

W.O. showed me a paper on Eng. Lit. Honours sent by "E.Y.D." to two girls at St. Thelma's in 1911. He has kept this.

Jasperus Cudworth of John Locke's paintings.

Dam. Cud. was daughter of Ralph Cudworth Master of ^{Christ College} ~~St. Thelma~~. Locke was supposed to be in love with her. Story told in

In W^o J^o D.K.K. I found a water color of the two together in Christ College garden under Milton's(?) mulberry tree(?)

Some time afterwards W^o received a letter from the girl saying she was married & described about John Locke & Jasperus Cudworth.
