Prof. Donaldson, Wistar Institute.

Caspar
Wistar.

Two things, please: - (1) What about that autobiography of Caspar Wistar? I hope you will be able to get it from the family for me. Then, I told Harvey Cushing, who is a devoted Vesalian, to write to you about Spielmann's Vésal's Iconography with a view possibly of getting the Institute to back it financially. He will give you the details: it really is a wonderful work and should of course be printed, and would have been by now were it not for the war.

Vésal.
