

Oxford, CUS417/128.8
June 9, 1919.

Dear Guppy,

I will put the British wants in the Lancet and B.M.J. and the American wants in the Journal of the Amer. Med. Ass. I shall ask for them to be sent direct to the Ryland's Library, and what shall I do in case anyone wishes to have the carriage paid? I would offer the duplicates of the Jenner to Sawyer of Oxford St. or Blight, Lincoln's Inn Fields. They would probably give a few pounds for them. There are several books of value. I don't think the Jenners would wish to be bothered about them.