Englands Hilfsaktionen.

Organizations of the British relief committees were made up subsequently to Osler's death, though he apparently gave the first impetus to the movement.

Following are the various British relief organizations mentioned, together with the names of the members of the different committees.

Vienna Emergency Relief Fund (For Wien children under six, mothers and hospital patients)

London Committee:

Field Marshall Haig
Rt. Hon. F. Huth Jackson
Sir Hedley le Bas
Sir Cyril K. Butler
Mr. P. A. Moltene
Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson
Mrs. Reginald MacKenna
Rt. Hon. Lord Robert Cecil
Mr. H. N. Johnson
Sir William Goode
Mr. J. L. Dougan - Wien representative
High Commissioner The Hon. F. O. Lindley (who was chairman of the committee formed in Wien)
Sir Thomas Cuninghame

The Catholic Bureau (opened Oct. 1920 under auspices of Vienna Emergency Relief Fund Committee)

Westminster Catholic Federation Fund (started by Vienna Emergency Relief Fund Committee in spring of 1921)

Save the Children Fund (No bureau in Wien).

President: Lord Weardale.

This organization contributed to the Society of Friends, etc., and helped to support the Home for Children in Klessheim. A special committee was made up for this home as follows:

Sir Thomas Cuninghame
J. L. Dougan
H. H. Cassels (British Consul)
Mr. Ofenheim
Dr. Griez
Dr. Harriet Chick
Prof. Pirquet
Prof. MacCallum (Director of the Home)

Society of Friends (Especially for infants, children under six, and for support of homes for children).

This was a British-American organization.
