To Sir. J. MacAlister.

From the R. P. of M. Oxford.

Letter Typewritten.

12th April 1919.

Dictated.

Dear MacAlister,

Thanks for the cheque what a financial genius you are! It's splendid that the Fellowship is such a success. So many of the Americans spoke about it this week.

I was so sorry not to be at the Reception on Wednesday, but my larynx is tender and I thought it better to stay at the Club.

I have had a most satisfactory talk with Fisher about the P.G. scheme, of which he approves most heartily, but he does not think he could take the Chair at our general Meeting on the 29th. What does your friend think of the scheme, and will he materialise? I am afraid we may have to start in a quiet way like all great things. I tried or 2 or 3 occasions to catch Wellcome to lunch with us, but failed; I called there the other day and had a good talk. He will not undertake the whole thing as he is tied up with some heavy projects, but he will help.

Sincerely yours,

W. Osler.
