(Letter to M. H. Spielmann)
(typewritten)

June 30, 1919

13, NORHAM GARDENS
OXFORD.

Dear Spielmann,

Tomes, to whom I wrote hoping that he might take over part at least of the finance, gave a pathetic refusal on the grounds of Russian and other losses.

I do not think Hoeber would need a guarantee, but I am loth to give up the idea of Oxford publication, and Harvey Cushing may be able to get some backing for it. Let me know when you hear from him.

Sincerely yours,

WM. OSLER.
