

*Copy.*13, Norman Gardens,
Oxford

July 13th, 1919.

My dear Miss Bloge,

The "Chief" is laid up with a bad cold, but will write to you in a day or two, meanwhile he has asked me to thank you for the Bibliography in the July number of the J.H.H.B. All the contributions have touched him to the heart, but yours, I think, has gratified him most of all. What a wonderfully long and excellent list it makes, and how completely you have done it.

He would like, if he may, to have separate reprints of the Bibliography, and could the type be held till the few omissions can be added? He hopes to be able to go through it critically in a few days and will write to you. Meanwhile I enclose a list of one or two omissions we have noticed, chiefly recent titles.

He has had a bad cold and got up out of bed on the 11th to go to London for the Presentation, which otherwise went off very well. He is better today and should be about again soon.

With kind regards and congratulations on a good task well done,

Yours sincerely,

(Signed)

W.W.Francis.