Dear Miss Blogg

What a bibliographical angel you are! and what bravery! and wherever did you dig out all those papers! It puts me to awful shame - to see such a list. It was really too good of you to take so much trouble.

Major Francis has noted one or two lacunae, in case the type has been kept standing for a reprint. How nice it will be to get into the new Library building. I wish you could see my collections. I am struggling hard with a catalogue.

Best wishes & 1000 thanks

Sincerely yours
