W.O. to J.Y.W.M.

Letter (script)

Oxford.

~~7~~ July 20, 1919. (Sunday)

Dear J.Y.W.,

I have been laid up ever since the 12th - an anaphylactic birthday bronchial shock! I am all right again - up to-day for the first time.

How kind to send that beautiful gift - I appreciate it so much - inside and out - You are too kind. For heaven's sake do 'reck your own rede' and get away. What the D. would the R.S.M. do without you.

Yours,

W.O.
