

E. R. O. to Malloch

CUS417/129.102

Thursday Eve

[7th Aug. '19]

(letter, script)

We have spent a very comfortable week here Sir Wm. seems much better. He talks of bathing but I shall not urge him - I do not like to give the pneumococci too much of a holiday, fearing they might take advantage of it. --- The nervous system remains where it was - a Whitman lecture is the occupation of the moment. Poor Thomas McCrae!